

Heath Weber

Heath Weber is the Associate Dean for Performing Arts at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa. Prior to his appointment at Morningside, Mr. Weber was the Director of Choral Activities at East High School, in Sioux City, where he conducted the Chamber Choir, Magnum Chorum and the Headliners; a nationally recognized and award winning show choir. As clinician, adjudicator and guest conductor, Mr. Weber is in high demand. His work with show choirs, choral ensembles and team building events keeps him busy! Mr. Weber holds baccalaureate and masters degrees from Augustana College in Sioux Falls, SD, in Music Education and Choral Conducting. Mr. Weber has appeared professionally in conducting engagements with the Augustana Chamber Choir, The East High School Choirs and the South Dakota Ambassadors of Excellence in over 23 countries in the South Pacific, Africa, Asia, Europe and Scandinavia and from coast to coast in the United States. He has appeared in performance with The South Dakota Symphony, The Sioux City Symphony, Sounds of South Dakota and in Musical Theatre, Opera and oratorio roles in the upper Midwest.
